

Nordic Research Network in Journalism
Studies, seminar in Stockholm, May 29 -30, 2013
Department of Media Studies/ JMK, Karlavägen 104

“Will the last reporter please turn out the lights....”

Programme

Wednesday May 29

10:00 Check in, coffee

10:30 Journalism is dead! Long live journalism?

Key note speech by Robert W. McChesney, Gutskell Endowed Professor in the Department of Communication at the University of Illinois at Urbana-
Champaign, USA

Discussion

12:30: Lunch

13:30: New Nordic Journalism Research. Presentation of a publication project. Paper presentations and discussion (1)

15.00: Coffee

15.15: New Nordic Journalism Research. Paper
presentations and discussion (2)

16.30 Coffee

16.45 A “globalisation” paradox: Are foreign correspondents redundant?

Elisabeth Eide, Professor, Oslo and Akershus University College, Andreas Widholm, lecturer, IMS/JMK, Stockholm University, Jørgen Skrubbeltrang, PhD-student, Roskilde University

18: 30 Buffet dinner & mingle

Thursday May 30

09.00: New Nordic Journalism Research. Paper presentations and discussion (3)

10.15: Coffee

10.30: Journalism as a public good. How can it be funded in the future?

Ass. professor Stefan Melesko, Jönköping International Business School (with a long experience from leading positions in the Swedish media branch).

Panel: Axel Andén, chief-editor, Medievärlden, Inger Östlund, media analyst, Swedish Radio. Nina Kvalheim, PhD-student, University of Bergen.

12.00: The End